Community Health Network of Connecticut Foundation

Community Health Network of Connecticut Foundation, Inc., is a public, charitable organization formed in 2003 by Community Health Network of Connecticut, Inc., a not-for-profit, managed care plan. The Foundation's mission is to advance, support, and promote programs and activities that fundamentally improve the health status of the people of Connecticut. This not-for-profit, charitable organization assists nonprofit activities of community health centers as well as, programs and activities that promote health care services to poor, distressed, and underprivileged individuals and families.

The Foundation is a volunteer-driven organization with an independent and non-funded Board of Directors who donate their time to the Foundation without compensation. The Foundation has been designated by the IRS as a 501(c)(3) entity, gifts to which are tax-exempt as charitable contributions.

These educational programs were designed to help community health centers develop new and improved models for quality health care delivery, disease management and disease prevention.

We look forward to partnering with institutions, health facilities and community organizations that can help us develop programs that will produce solutions for Connecticut's health problems. The Foundation envisions a state where all people have the ability to live healthy lives.

Cornell Scott

The Community Health Network of Connecticut Foundation, Inc. in 2009 renamed its annual golf classic after Cornell Scott, a founding member of its Foundation and also a longtime board member.

The inaugural Cornell Scott Golf Classic will be held on Aug. 24, 2009 at the renowned TPC River Highlands in Cromwell.

Mr. Scott joined the Hill Health Center at its inception in 1968 as its Director of Training and Education. In 1972, he was appointed its Executive Director. He maintained that position until his passing.

Mr. Scott died on Aug. 25, 2008 after a long illness. He was 73 years old.

Mr. Scott's 40-year tenure at the Hill Health Center was marked by a steady development of services, sites and programs aimed at the New Haven area's low-income population. He earned a national reputation for his work with the National Association of Community Health Centers, Inc. Mr. Scott was president of the Association in the 1980s when the country's health center program faced extinction in the U.S. Congress. His work is attributed with helping to preserve national funding, which led to the growth of community health centers across the nation.

With his long litany of lifetime accomplishments, "Scotty," as he preferred to be called, will perhaps be best remembered for his graciousness, his ability to bring people together in order to address the needs of community health and his passionate advocacy for the health care needs of the poor.

Best Wishes & Continued Success to the CHNCT Foundation and the Cornell Scott
Memorial Golf Classic.
